PRESERVE CAMPING

@ DUTTON ISLAND

- Camping on the Island is “primitive” – no electricity or water at the campsite.

Please remember: leave only footprints and take only pictures

- Fire in fire pit or fire rings only
- Possession and consumption of alcohol is illegal in the Preserve
- Nothing may be attached to the trees
- Do not cut or remove any of the branches, bushes, or ground fall (dead limbs, needles, etc.)
- Pets must be on leash and attended at all times (applicant responsible for cleaning up after animals)
- Quiet hours are 10:00 pm to 7:00 am
- Parking is very limited on the island during the day. For more than 2 cars, please park additional cars at the entrance of the island.
- Share the Preserve with others – paddlers, fishermen, hikers, etc.
- Please use refuse containers provided. Recycle please.
- Restrooms should be open during your stay (please check with park ranger)
- Obtain the after-hours code to the gate lock/campsite lock prior to your visit from the Recreation Department. The main gate is locked 1 hour after sunset. The code must be used to exit or enter after hours.
